2007 Frank Waters Award Winner — Jimmy Santiago Baca

J. S. Baca will receive the Frank Waters Award for his lifetime achievements as a poet, writer, teacher, and for the canon of his work as an internationally acclaimed Hispanic author.

Born in New Mexico, he turned his life around during a five-year prison sentence. There, he learned to read and write, and discovered his voracious passion for poetry. Baca devotes his life to writing and teaching others who are overcoming hardships. He is the winner of the Pushcart Prize, The International Prize, and the American Book Award.

His non-profit foundation, Cedar Tree, gives people the opportunity to become educated and improve their lives. Baca's books include Black Mesa Poems, A Place To Stand, and Set This Book on Fire.

We are proud to have Westmoreland Coal Corporation sponsor the 2007 Frank Waters Award.

2007 Golden Quill Award Winner — Gus and Diane Lee

Gus Lee has authored four best-selling novels including China Boy and Chasing Hepburn that have been named New York Times, Chicago Tribune and American Library Best Books. This year, Gus and his wife Diane are receiving the Golden Quill Award for their co-authored book, COURAGE — the Backbone of Leadership. Gus has consulted in ethics and high core values leadership to Fortune 500s and addresses national audiences on the essential, measurable and learned behaviors of courage while urging a return to America's moral center. Gus and Diane have raised two young adults and an immigrant teen.

We are proud to have Hooked on Books bookstore as this year's Golden Quill Award sponsor.

Founded in 1955, the Friends of the Pikes Peak Library District became a nonprofit organization in 1969 "to support, preserve, and promote our public library system." We accomplish our mission by working with the Pikes Peak Library District, partnering with the community, businesses, and organizations. With nearly a thousand supporting members, the Friends sponsor and support many PPLD programs, projects, and events to further the enjoyment of reading, to cultivate the love of books and knowledge and to enhance the literary heritage in our community.
